

PUBLIC DAILY LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1904.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1904.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

NOT LIKE IT USED TO BE.
It isn't like it used to be. Why twenty years ago
My eyes would have been glarin' an' I rose to meet
'em.
My fist would have been shakin' an' my arms
would have been bared
An' someone on the other side would have been badly scared.
But now I'm calm an' peaceful an' my mind is not upset—
It's three weeks to election, an' I'm not excited
yet.
I used to start disputin' when the big conventions
closed—
I'd argue an' I'd wrangle with each fellow so disposed.
Why, I would be so angry by the last day of July
That I'd start in a fightin'—never waited a reply—
I'd start right in to fightin' with each enemy I met;
But now it's 'most election, an' I'm not excited
yet.
It used to be: I'd listen for each thing the others
said,
An' maybe sit disputin' till I'd ought to be in bed.
An' when we had a rally they could count on me,
of course,
To lead the big procession an' to yell till I was hoarse.
I used to know the Tariff an' the Nation's great big debt,
An' all the facts an' figures—but I'm not excited
yet.
I haven't missed my supper an' I haven't heard a speech,
I haven't felt like hittin' everyone within my reach.
I haven't thrilled at hearin' how the old flag still
was waved;
I haven't even shouted that the country must be saved;
I'm just a plain spectator, an' I haven't made a bet.
It's three weeks to election, an' I'm not excited
yet.

The ladies of the Sodality gave a euchre
Wednesday night in the Knights of St. John Hall that was a social and financial success.
About thirty couples were present and contested for prizes. Miss Nellie Greeley won ladies' first prize and Mr. William Kinsler carried off the gentlemen's prize.

Major W. N. Stockton returned Monday from a two weeks' disputation at the World's Fair, looking a little jaded, thin and yet healthy and jovial. With the many functions, in which the Major was in the receiving line, and the labor of looking after and sharing the duties involved
at the Kentucky Building, it is really surprising that as much of him came back as did.

Yesterday morning John Hart of Keova,
W. Va., attempted to swing onto freight No.
77 as it passed through Dover and missing his calculations the toes of his foot were caught by the wheel and cut off. He was brought to this city where Dr. Adamson dressed his foot and he was taken to his home on the accommodation
last evening.

A unique piece of mechanical skill is to be seen in Ray's show window. It is a fac-simile of an old time Dutch pipe made of tobacco.
The long stem as well as the bowl is made of cigar wrappers and put together in such a manner as to give it the appearance of a real pipe.
It is the handwork of James Onten, who he-sides being a first-class musician is a finished and expert cigar maker.

WANTS ABDALLAH PARK

Offer of Mr. L. T. Anderson, Jr., For Harrison Land Refused

Mr. L. T. Anderson, Jr., of this city offered $25,000 for Abdallah Park, near Cynthiana, the other day. The offer was refused. His thoroughbred farm on Buffalo Trace is a beautiful place and complete in all details. He wants more ground room and at the same time be nearer the home of the thoroughbred of the Bluegrass.

Mr. Anderson's removal from this community would be a real loss to its business interests.
He not only advertises this vicinity as a market for fine horses, but in the course of a year is the means of bringing hundreds of strangers to our city and county who leave many good dollars in our coffers.

It is to be hoped he will abandon the idea of going away and continue to reside here.

The Rev. George Froh is engaged in a protracted meeting at Hebron.

Mrs. B. F. Howard of near Washington, com-

luckily picked up by Bethel, the young son of Mr. William E. Royster, Jr. Mr. Howard yesterday advertised his wife's loss in THE LEDGER, and Mr. Royster has now returned the purse to this office, where it is awaiting the owner.

THE LIBERTY BELLES.

Which particular charm will recommend itself in the production of "The Liberty Belles" as the greatest, the critics have as yet not been able to agree upon, but certain it is that a greater variety of "girls" could not have been brought together had Harry B. Smith, the author of this musical comedy, and Manager Berger penetrated to the ends of the earth and beyond. "The Liberty Belles" will be at The Washington tonight. It will be seen that boys are not so numerous, but the few that have had the good fortune to be dropped among this bevy of loveliness will doubtless appreciate their good luck and contribute their share to the success of the play.
Judging from the remarkable advance sale of seats, it is evident that The Washington will be the point of destination for most all of our music and fun loving playgoers. Tickets on sale at Ray's.

A ROYAL SLAVE.

"A Royal Slave," which comes to this city
next Tuesday, October 25th, will prove an innovation in the way of melodrama, as it is a distinct novelty both as to theme and scenic embellishment. The plot of the play is taken from General Lew Wallace's great story, "The Fair God," which is sufficient guarantee of its literary merit. The many beautiful scenes have been painted from photographs taken in Mexico especially for this production and are said to be magnificent examples of the scene-painter's art.

The Democrats predicted that Senator FAIRBANKS would prove a frost. He has certainly succeeded in blighting Democratic hopes wherever he has spoken.

DEMOCRATS would feel better if the Free-trade and free silver remarks of their Congressmen could be expunged from The Congressional Record.

The per capita circulation is $31.16, about $6 greater than it was in 1896 when Candidate PARKER joined with BRYAN in declaring that the only way to increase the per capita was to adopt the free coinage of silver.

SENATOR GORMAN has taken hold of the Democratic campaign but he has not yet asked any Democratic candidates for Congress to pledge themselves to vote for a re-enactment of the Wilson-Gorman Tariff Bill.

HEAD SOLID SORE

Awful Suffering of Baby and Sleepless Nights of Mother.

CURED BY CUTICURA

Skin Fair as a Lily with no Scar to Recall Awful Sore Writes Mother.

"I herewith write out in full the beginning and end of that terrible disease, eczema, which caused my babe untold suffering and myself many sleepless nights.

"My babe was born seemingly a fair, healthy child, but when she was three weeks old a swelling appeared on the back of her head, and in course of time broke. It did not heal but grew worse, and the sore spread from the size of a dime to that of a dollar. I used all kinds of remedies that I could think of, but nothing seemed to help; in fact, it grew worse. Her hair fell out where the sore was, and I feared it would never grow again. It continued until my aged father came on a visit, and when he saw the baby he told me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment right away.

"To please him I did so, and to my surprise by their use the sore began to heal over, the hair grew over it, and to-day she has a nice head of hair, her skin is as fair as a lily, and she has no scar left to recall that awful sore, and it is over eight months and no sign of its returning."

Mrs. Wm. RYER, Elk River, Minn. "Cure permanent." So writes Mrs. Ryer, Feb. 25, 1903, six years later:

"Your letter of the 19th inst. received, asking in regard to the cure of my baby some six years ago. Well, the disease has never returned to her head which at that time was a solid sore on top and down the back. Once or twice since then a patch has come on her hand near the wrist, but it finally disappeared after proper treatment with Cuticura."

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Resolvent, 50c. (In form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per box of 50.) Ointment, 25c. Soap, 25c. per box. Sold by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Agents: J. DIDN'T COME HERE

A Sharpsburg Couple Who Were On Matrimony Bent

Yesterday a 'phone message was received here from Sharpsburg requesting the authorities to be on the lookout for an eloping couple who were headed this way for the purpose of getting married.

The bride-to-be was a Miss Perry, a seventeen-year-old school girl. Of course it was prearranged. As the girl's lover drove to the school she was attending and on her entering the carriage they whirled away at breakneck speed for a place where they could procure the necessary license and wed.

They must have taken another direction as they have failed to put in an appearance up to the present writing.

The Issue Remains.

[From the New York Globe.] It is as true now as the campaign enters upon its closing month as it was at the outset that there is only one issue in the canvass. Shall we have a change? In other words, shall the country continue for four years longer in the policy it has pursued during the past eight years or shall it enter upon a new and uncertain policy? Nobody can say that there is anything experimental or uncertain about what the Republicans offer. They "stand pat," saying through their platform and candidate, "If you wish to know what our future will be, look at our past." Neither can anybody say that there is anything except uncertainty about what the Democrats offer. What their policy is they themselves do not know. All that they promise is a change, and that in itself is a pledge to unsettle existing conditions—that is, to bring about uncertainty.

Miss Rose Hennessy, well known as a poetess and elocutionist, of Lexington, Ky., tells how she was cured of uterine inflammation and ovaritis by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been so blessedly helped through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I feel it but just to acknowledge it, hoping that it may help some other woman suffering as I did. "For years I enjoyed the best of health and thought that I would always do so. I attended parties and receptions thinly clad, and would be suddenly chilled, but I did not think of the results. I caught a bad cold eighteen months ago while menstruating, and this caused inflammation of the womb and congested ovaries. I suffered excruciating pains and kept getting worse. My attention was called to your Vegetable Compound and the wonderful cures it had performed, and I made up my mind to try it for two months and see what it would do for me. Within one month I felt much better, and at the close of the second I was entirely well. "I have advised a number of my lady friends to use it, and all express themselves as well satisfied with the results as I was."—Miss ROSE NORA HENNESSY, 410 S. Broadway, Lexington, Ky.

The experience and testimony of some of the most noted women of America go to prove beyond a question that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will correct all such trouble and at once, by removing the cause, and restoring the organs to a normal and healthy condition.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—About two years ago I consulted a physician about my health which had become so wretched that I was no longer able to be about. I had severe backache, bearing-down pains, pains across the abdomen, was very nervous and irritable, and this trouble grew worse each month. The physician prescribed for me, but I soon discovered that he was unable to help me, and I then decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and soon found that it was doing me good. My appetite was returning, the pains disappearing, and the general benefits were well marked.

"You cannot realize how pleased I was, and after taking the medicine for only three months, I found that I was completely cured of my trouble, and have been well and hearty ever since, and no more fear the monthly period, as it now passes without pain to me. Yours very truly, Miss PEARL ACKERS, 327 North Summer St., Nashville, Tenn."

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health more than a million women, you cannot well say without trying it "I do not believe it will help me." If you are ill, do not hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and write Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for special advice. Her advice is free and helpful. Write to-day. Delay may be fatal.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co., Lynn, Mass.

IS THIS SO?

Maysville People Can Decide

You would not accept the word of an utter stranger as readily as that of a person whom you knew. The following statement is made by a citizen, perhaps a neighbor. Read it:

Mrs. Mary Kinsler of 362 East Fourth street says:

"I sent a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, obtained at J. Jas Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, to a relative living in the country who was much troubled with kidney complaint. The results obtained from Doan's Kidney Pills show that only terms of highest praise express the great curative properties of the medicine."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box; Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
